

A dead donkey in cement is launched upward at 10m/s from the roof of a building. Some unknown distance from the top of the building is a 90-m tall window. The donkey falls past the window in 3 s . The bottom of the window is located 50 m from the ground. How tall is the building.