

Peer Coaching is--- a confidential process through which teachers share their craft knowledge and provide one another with professional feedback, support, and assistance, for the purpose of refining present skills and learning new ones

Pam Robbins, ASDC

What can be observed?

Domains of Teaching

from Enhancing Professional Practice, Charlotte Danielson

Domain I:	Planning and Preparation
Domain II:	Classroom Environment
Domain III:	Professional Practice
Domain IV:	Professional Responsibilities

Domains I, II, and III are all observable in the instructional moment, and so lend themselves to peer coaching.